Re: Arthur Balder v. Susan Sarandon, et al, Case No.: 1:22-cv-06401-JLR-SN

To the Hon. Jennifer L. Rochon:

I am the Plaintiff in this action. This letter is respectfully submitted pursuant to I.B. and I.G. of your Honour's Individual Practices rules to request permission for Plaintiff to be able to file via SDNY's ECF system.

Plaintiff is at this point sufficiently familiar with the requirements, and will use it specially for letter motions that require to be uploaded on time. The pro se intake of SDNY is overloaded with work. It often happens that papers sent to them take up to 48 hours to be uploaded and to appear on the case's docket. Whenever filing a specific document may represent doubts as regards to its filing via ECF, Plaintiff, our of caution, will send it to the pro se intake via email for them to upload it.

As a consequence of that time lapse, on several occasions, our oppositions and poits of view on matters of interest have not been seen before but after Your Honour has made a decision on a request from Defendants.

For instance: today our Opposition to this request of extention, although filed yesterday, did not show up until after Your Honour had already made a decission on Defendants' request of extention of time.

This is detrimental for communications with the Court.

For this reasons, we kindly request permission for filing via ECF in this case. If Your Honour finds this inappropiate, then Plaintiff kindly requests Your Honour to allow 48 hours after any filing by Defendants, so that Plaintiff's voice are also taken into consideration before decissions are made.

Our inability to hire attorneys should not hamstring our necessity and right to be heard.

We greatly appreacite your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

February 22nd, New York, New York, /s/ Arthur Balder
